On a Saturday during Summer Camp 1987 a Scouter and Scout parent [REDACTED] called me and said "we have a problem and I need to come to camp to talk with you." I told him to come on. Later on he arrived at Camp and told me that all the boys in Troop #6 who had just spent a week at our camp were reporting an act of sexual child abuse by their Scoutmaster Mr. Peter Gross.

Their story was: "Peter slept (in the same sleeping bag) with one of the Scouts of Troop #6 and "fondled" him sexually during one night at Summer Camp." "Futhermore, when confronted "in the act" by another Scout of Troop #6 Peter gathered all the boys together and told them not to tell anybody and that he was having a dream of a pretty lady and that was why he was "playing with the Scout" in bed with him."

I spoke with Peter on the telephone a few days later and he told me his side of the story. It is the following: "There was a terrible thunderstorm one night during camp and one of my Scouts fell out of his bunk and was extremely afraid because of the storm. I had him sleep with me to calm him. Nothing else happened!"

Within the next week Peter Gross had resigned from his job, resigned as Scoutmaster of Troop #6, and moved away from Rabun County.
